E. BUSINESS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES OF MARCH 11, 2014

E.1 Official Approval from Minister of Justice

The Municipality of the District of Digby CAO is waiting on an approval of an email from Fred Sanford concerning a unique combining of the two municipal units to a joint committee.

TOWN OF DIGBY
RCMP JOINT POLICE ADVISORY BOARD
JUNE 10, 2014

E.2 April Edition of the Coastline

The Committee was asked if they had seen a copy of the April Coastline and if anyone from the Committee had been contacted by any of the public as a result of the ad in the coastline, no one had been contacted at this point.

E.3 2014 Annual Performance Plan- Community Consultation-How did it go?

S/Sgt. Rocky Calhoun informed the committee that the community consultation went very well; every community they were able to meet with had no concerns and issues to report. The RCMP was able to meet lots of people and felt they were very beneficial.

F. REPORTS

F.1 RCMP Report

S/Sgt. Rocky Calhoun presented 2 reports one on property crime for the fiscal years of 2008/09 to 2013/14 this can cover a variety of offences. In the current fiscal year property crime is down by 1% compared to a 5 year average. Theft from motor vehicles is on the rise, we should be trying to inform people to lock their vehicles at all times. The second report was a report for April and May S/Sgt Calhoun noted that there is one member of the detachment in trained in Drug Recognition. There will be an increase number of road checks with focus on drivers that continue to drive while operating phones-distracted driving.

G. CORRESPONENCE

G.1 None

H. NEW BUSINESS

H.1 None

I. BOARD MEMBER ISSUES

I.1 Councillor Adams noticed black skid marks on the highway 101 in Marshalltown, and had complaints from residents in that area. S/Sgt Calhoun said that he would look into this he was not aware of the issue.

I.2 Councillor Adams has also received complaints of the speed limit around the Barton School area. This is of concern because of the yard sales in the area.

J. DATE OF NEXT MEETING- September 9, 2014

K. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned by Councillor Turnbull and seconded by Councillor Adams at 6:50 pm.
